Nursery: July 6: Samantha and Heath Doane

July 13: Church Retreat

The peace lamp is lit as a reminder to pray for an end to violence in the world. We trust in the power of prayer, as we know that through prayer, all things are possible.

One way to “seek the peace of the city” (Jer. 29:7) is to advocate for just policies and government practices, especially for the benefit of vulnerable people in our society. If you feel called to live out your faith in this way, contact information for our U.S. Senators and Representatives is available in the Fellowship Hall. The list contains mailing addresses and web addresses for email forms. A committee assignment list for each legislator is also included. Please feel free to take a copy with you. – Eden Peace and Witness Commission

Summer Adult Sunday School elective in the Fellowship Hall: We will explore the roots and lasting impact of the Anabaptist movement which began 500 years ago. Each week, the worship service will focus on a particular aspect of Anabaptist faith and adult Sunday School class will discuss what that aspect means for us in 2025 and beyond.

Got Questions? If you have questions about the Anabaptist/Mennonite faith, now is a great time to ask. Submit questions here <https://forms.gle/9FZTAZUFfzhR7V4F8> or the QR code, or in the box in the Fellowship Hall. We will try to address them through our summer series on Anabaptism.

Got Answers? As we take time this summer to explore Anabaptism (the bigger umbrella within Christianity under which Mennonites belong), we'd love to collect lots of brief descriptions of Anabaptist/Mennonite faith and life. So, in ten words or less, please answer the question "What is an Anabaptist/Mennonite?" The question can be answered online at this link: <https://forms.gle/hAKiMaFnGti68Fpx5>, by using the QR Code, or by hand in the Fellowship Hall. Answers will be shared anonymously in the Fellowship Hall, so that we can all see the diversity of visions and experiences of Anabaptist/Mennonite Faith.
