Be Amazed: God Among Us

Prelude

Karen Kaufman

Welcome

Jay Goering

Call to Worship

One: In the wilderness, a voice cries out: "Prepare the way of the Lord!"

Many: We have heard the call; we have watched for the light.

One: The One we waited for has come—a gentle dove, a vulnerable child.

Many: We have seen the Christ child among the poor; we have heard the soft flutter of wings.

One: This is how God arrives among us—not in power and might, but in vulnerable love.

Many: Your ways are not our ways, O God.

One: Come, let us worship the One who has come among us, the Lamb of God, the light of the world.

All: We stand in amazement—Christ has been revealed!

Opening Songs

Song leader: Cindy Bartell

Candle Lighting

One: We have been waiting in the long, dark night, waiting for your light of hope, peace, joy and love to reveal itself and shine on us. Shine in us.

"When I get cynical this time of year about so much over-spending, glitzy bows, and ridiculous "Christmas songs" that have nothing to do with the birth of Jesus, I read (or sing) Mary's song, The Magnificat, in Luke 1:46b-55. When I am in despair that there is no justice or peace on earth, I read Mary's song. Reading this scripture doesn't change what's happening around us, but it does reorient me toward God and God's dream for all of us. God's dream is that everything will be made right as God intended it. God's dream of shalom is a dream of peace, hope, justice, and salvation for all people. If we can have the imagination that the prophets had, that shalom is possible, and indeed will come, in God's time, we will not give in to despair or cynicism. Let Mary's song be our song of courage and vision this advent and beyond!

God is with us no matter what." —Kathy Neufeld Dunn, associate WDC minister in the WDC weekly newsletter. Read more here.
